The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

Take it Away; Give it Away

Maybe things are getting better after all.

Two items in the news at Leap-month's end give hope.

One, a study by Copley News Service's highly respected Edward Neilan, gives hope that our free spending Washington disciples of giving our tax money away around the globe are taking a second look at some of the programs easy-spenders have gestated. He told about it in the Sunday Union.

In another piece written by R. G. Nokes for the Associated Press and published in the Evening Tribune, there appears to be a change in the policy of the Internal Revenue Service. The new policy will restrain overzealous tax collectors by requiring that "they be quicker to listen and slower to act in dealing with citizens whose taxes are overdue."

The two articles appeared a day apart and put together, as is being done here, it spotlights two inequities citizens have suffered at the whim of our government for years.

It boils down to a rather simple and undemocratic policy: putting the heel of an unremitting government taxing agency on the neck of the U.S. taxpayer. Then taking that money and distributing it world wide — much of it going to those who avow to wipe freedom from the face of the earth.

The IRS, with a history of seizures where a tax obligation appears to exist, has now told its operatives that "taxpayers are not to be prejudged as evaders".

In a San Diego case which attracted much local notoriety in 1972, IRS seized a moving-and-storage firm operated by John Heck Jr. on Newton ave. Although the real estate was not a subject of the seizure, the place was padlocked after Heck challenged the IRS by asking for a court adjudication. Courts are for deciding if guilt exists.

A small group of sympathizers were on hand when Heck broke the glass in the door of his business firm and entered. This brought IRS agents, the FBI and the S.D. Police.

As one observer opined, "Even more important than collecting the money is the act of obtaining business and personal records by which a person may be controlled."

Ten sympathizers were arrested and were found guilty. But an appelate court held that there was no evidence to support the charge that a conspiracy existed to attempt to rescue seized property.

In handling people who were drawn to the scene, one IRS agent became involved in a melee in which his gun fell to the ground. Regardless of who was at fault, the court let stand a charge against 7 citizens for conspiring to assault IRS agents.

The situation wouldn't have occurred under a "meet and confer" policy — a direction in which the IRS seems now to be headed.

The pain and travail that accompanied the action by government officials probably didn't produce the tax money any quicker than a more benign approach would.

Most Americans are irked when they have to scrounge for money to pay taxes while at the same time tax money is being used to supply wheat to Russia at below-market prices. More tax money is used to subsidize delivery of the low price wheat. Wheat shortages then drive up prices of grain and cattle in the U.S. Russia, through our largess, can use what they save through the use of our tax dollars to send money and military aid to nations which oppose us.

Heck and his group, were not concerned about world affairs. They were concerned that the IRS order did not include real estate, yet the property was being seized.

The IRS is now contemplating a reappraisal of all collection procedures in response to criticism. And it's about time.

And a final few words about the U.S. world giveaway programs. In February, Neilan asserts, the Administration broke off talks regarding resuming economic aid to India "because of India's policies toward the U.S."

Then Congress halted a military aid program to Turkey because of the invasion of Cyprus by Turkish forces in 1974 and the closing of U.S. bases there.

Others than enemies are being cut off. Congress whacked $500 million in military aid to Israel requested by the Administration.

Even Secretary of State Henry Kissinger does not have the free hand he did an administration ago. In his swing through Latin America, economic assistance is more for "cooperation" than direct grants.

Many who viewed the past decade with grave misgivings are beginning to believe that our country is beginning to emerge from some world stupidity and return to a posture by which we will regain global respect and, equally important, regain faith in the Administration and confidence in ourselves.

Ronald Reagan Says:

"I have always believed that government is here to protect us from each other. Government cannot possibly set itself up to protect us from ourselves.

"I happen to believe it is fine to have seat belts in your car. I am thoroughly for them, because I know how many people have been killed in minor accidents because they did not have seat belts on. Anyone who does not wear one, particularly in the front seat, is foolish. But I would fight to the death any bill that says you've got to wear one since by not wearing one you are not harming someone else.

"A better example is riding motorcycles. I agree with requiring that you either have to wear a wind screen or goggles. That's because if you get hit in the eye with a bug or rock, you can come across the line and do something to me, if I am coming the other way. I also think you are foolish to ride a motorcycle without a helmet. That isn't protecting anyone else. Freedom should be the right to be stupid if you want to be."

UW to Install Guest as Veep

Robert Guest, manager of the Crocker National Bank in Lemon Grove will be installed as vice chairman of the East County United Way District Board of Directors at a dinner tonight at the Elk's Lodge in El Cajon.

The Rev. Michael Maxson, minister of the L. G. Christion Church, will join the board as a director.

Hardy G. Kuykendall, a La Mesa Councilman will be installed as chairman of the East County Board.

A no-host reception at 6 and a 7 o'clock dinner will be followed by a business meeting and an awards presentation by the 1975 UW/CHAD Combined Campaign awards committee.

Grove Man Attends VFW National Meet

Dale Willey, 1708 Colfax dr., Lemon Grove, is attending the annual VFW Mid-Winter Conference of National Officers and State Commanders in Washington D.C., March 5-9.

Willey is former California Commander and presently a member of the VFW's National Voice of Democracy Committee. He is a member of VFW Post 6874.

The VFW leaders will appear before the Senate and House Veterans Affairs Committees to present the organization's legislative goals for 1976, meet with the Congressional delegations and attend briefings by top Congressional, Administration and military officials.

Public Hearing on Incorporation

Sups to Decide Wednesday On City Status For L.G.

The Lemon Grove hearing on the incorporation of Lemon Grove is scheduled for Wednesday at 10 a.m. in room 310, S.D. Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway.

Officially, it is called the "Lemon Grove Reorganization" hearing since certain detachments and annexation of taxing districts will be decided upon.

But also under consideration will be the supervisors view of permitting residents of Lemon Grove to vote on whether the community shall be a city or remain as an area of the county.

It is probable that the supervisors will approve the principle of incorporation since it earlier approved the county-paid cost of a feasibility study and then agreed that the area could support itself with the tax income available.

Boundaries and Tax Rate

If the supervisors approve an election, a date will be set, the boundaries of the proposed city will be delineated, and the tax rate will be set.

If the election is approved and more than one-half of the total voters approve incorporation, it is proposed by the proponents of incorporation that formation of the city will be July 4 — a bicentennial birth.

Any person desiring to make a written protest against the reorganization may do so by written communication filed with the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors at least one hour prior to the hearing. The protest must contain a description of the land and the residential address of the voter.

Proponents of incorporation are Dell Lake, Jim Dorman, and John Stenbeck. Opponents, if such there be, have not identified themselves.

54 Thursday Night Cruisers Face Variety of Charges

By Max Goodwin

The regular Thursday night car cruise on Broadway in Lemon Grove attracted about the same number of visitors to the 7:30-11 p.m. weekly happening — but it seemed like more last week.

Fewer were expected after the "Road Runners", the custom car cruise club that initiated the Lemon Grove gathering had called a halt to the event at the end of January. The Runners distributed circulars claiming non-responsibility for gatherings but those without club affiliation quickly filled in the parking places left by the vacated club.

Last Thursday's gathering was generally well-behaved — for a crowd of that size. About 250 cars carrying an estimated 700 people lined both sides of Broadway Thursday. Yet, 54 were cited or arrested on a variety of charges.

Visitors gathered in little groups talking about autos to the background of stereo music coming from many of the cars.

They also stood about drinking beer, from cans mostly, leaving their debris behind. Some smoked marijuana and the smell of pot was noticeable in about every fifth group.

'Pot' Illegal

Marijuana possession is illegal but the smokers were skilled at hiding evidence. In one instance, a photographer standing on a traffic control curb flashed a bulb toward a group of 150 feet distance. Whatever two of the group were holding was quickly dropped and ground into the dirt with the heel of their boots as some of the group scattered.

Beer drinkers were not disturbed by police — unless they appeared to be juveniles. Three were. They were arrested.

Ten adults were arrested later in the evening when they were either in possession or under the influence of alcoholic beverage while in their cars.

The parking strip which straddles both sides of Broadway between Imperial and Kempf is private property. The area belongs to the land on which is part of the business district. It is legal, though not prudent, to drink beer while standing on private property. But open containers in cars or driving after drinking is another matter.

Complaints Registered

Complaints from business owners along Broadway have begun to mount in the past two weeks. Some are forced to close shop early because the parking is taken by cruisers. There seems to be a rule among the cruisers that vehicles must be parked headed the wrong way. Traffic laws governing private property permit parking and driving in any direction.

One source said that one solution to the parking-debris problem would be for owners to put up signs banning use of the parking area between 8 and 11 p.m. on Thursdays. Vehicles in the area during that period, it was said, could be towed away. It is not probable that agreement could be reached on a No-Thursday-Night-Parking since property owners on Broadway, last year, rejected a proposal by which the parking areas would be dedicated to San Diego County and would then fall within the protection and upkeep of the County. The same laws would then have applied in the parking strips as on the public roadway. Additionally, the County would have repaired, striped and cleaned the parking areas.

Cops on Duty

One cruiser told this observer that "cops are chilling" their happening. Units of the Sheriff's Department and of the California Highway Patrol cruised the area, probably responding to backup calls. CHP said that their units issued about 10% more citations than usual for a shift. Sheriff's units were a little more active in that area—probably because the Lemon Grove office, where local patrols report, is in the strip used by the cruisers.

CHP said that their units issued 26 tickets; gave 14 mechanical warnings and 8 verbal warnings during the shift in this area.

Arrests Made

Sheriff's units listed 18 arrests including a felony arrest for possessing a gun and 5 juvenile arrests including two felony charges. There were also 9 traffic citations handed out by sheriff's men.

The crowd was swelled Thursday night by sightseers who added to the carnival air.

There has been no recorded violence during the happenings but few would argue with the proposition that an untoward act among a group of drinkers as large as the Thursday night turnout could incite a riot.

It is not likely that a present night shift of police could adequately handle such an affair if the crowd became unruly. Injuries, damage and loss from breaking and looting would be substantial, it is believed.

8 Seek 4 CoC Posts

Deadline for electing members to the board of directors of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce is Monday according to Glenda Jackson, CoC office manager.

Eight candidates are: Roger Ballard, dentist; Howard Coberly, muffler installer; Rose Harris, S&L manager; Justin Houshar, fountain products; Pete Louis, loan firm; John Stenbeck, realtor; Ezra Sullivan, contractor, M. Woodend, printer.

Winners will be installed at a dinner April 24 at a place to be decided upon later.

In the group's monthly board meeting Thursday Ron Hansen, a zoning planner who attended Lemon Grove schools before joining the San Diego County Zoning Administration's staff, told that citizens need not be cowed by county employees. "If you think you are right, defend your position," he said noting that no one is infallible. He said that he admonished the people in his department to remember that they are public servants. "These are the people who pay our salaries," he tells other employees. "They are paying for service and we're the ones who must deliver that service," he continued.

Refreshing Response

Hansen had attended the meeting as a guest and his visit was unofficial. But his presentation and attitude was so refreshing that board members were hard put to find questions to ask at the record-setting turnout of about 50.

In other activities, the board heard reports on Old Time Days coming up April 3; a Lemon Grove telephone directory, and action regarding the county's recently adopted sign ordinance.

The board instructed the office manager to urge the county zoning commissioner to invoke the ruling the commission had made against number stacking on the Main st. side of the railway tracks in Lemon Grove.

Encanto Boys Club to Raise Flag from DC

Congressman Lionel L. Van Deerlin will present a flag flown over the White House in Washington to the Encanto Branch Boys' Club, 6785 Imperial ave., Saturday morning at 10.

The presentation is sponsored by the Lemon Grove Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 2082 and their Auxiliary.

A procession including VFW District Commander Ralph Trueb and District President Clem Esparza, Post 2082 Commander Happy Blake and Auxiliary President Lucille Behnke, their respective colors, banners and escorts, will approach the flagpole, followed by Congressman Van Deerlin who will be escorted by San Diego City Councilman Leon Williams.

Williams will present Van Deerlin to Art Curry, branch director, who in turn will introduce the Congressman to six "Boys of the Month."

The youths are chosen by the staff of each department of the club; junior games, arts and crafts, library, junior athletics and senior athletics.

The Boy Scout troop sponsored by VFW Post 2082 will raise the flag on the pole donated by the Post when the club was opened.

Crime Increasing

Crime in the U.S. as measured by the Crime Index rose 11 per cent during the first 9 months of 1975 as compared with the same period in 1974.

1974 had a 16 per cent increase of 1963.

These figures are contained in the FBI Uniform Crime Reports.

SV CoC Elects New Officers

New officers were elected at a special meeting of the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors held February 18 at the Troy Cafe in Spring Valley.

President-elect is Larry Symonds, who owns L&H Vacuum Center. New vice president is Burt Hodge of Hodge Insurance.

Current president is Shell service station owner Maurice Peterson who took over the office from Glenn Boelter. Boelter resigned in February due to business commitments.

Treasurer Charlene Anderson and secretary Naomi Marshall were re-elected to their positions.

The board has three new members: John Moss of C&M Time Distributors; Mary Murana, co-owner of Murana Jewelry, and H. E. "Ed" Horton of Horton Farms.

Next board meeting is held Tuesday at 7 a.m. at Troy Cafe, at which time committee chairmen will be selected.

Mt. Miguel Pool Boosters Seeks Congressional Aid

The Mt. Miguel Boosters club, with $19,000 of a target $120,000 in hand, is getting ready to renew its campaign for funds according to W. R. Sanders, president.

For the past two and a half years, the Boosters together with the Miguel Community Aquatic Committee, have promoted special events to accumulate the $19,000 to install a swimming pool and lighted tennis courts on Mt. Miguel campus.

The pool would be kept up through a maintenance fund supplied by the Grossmont District. The district will also contribute $25,000 to the fund when it is built.

A promised county contribution of $50,000 may be lost to a reduced county budget.

Sanders asked U. S. Congressman Lionel Van Deerlin to explore possibilities of a federal grant or loan support and the congressman said he was asking his researchers at the Library of Congress to report to him any such possibility.

Meanwhile, members of the Boosters organization are studying additional means of fund-raising. They have tried everything from teas to blitzes, a Pool-a-Thon and a debacle called GRASP (Grossmont Recreational Activities and Swimming Pool).

Anyone who has an idea for fund-raising or who wants to work on the project should contact Sanders at Mt. Miguel High school — 463-5551.

Marines, Shriners Booked for April 3 Old Time Days Parade

Preparations continue for the 13th Annual Old Time Days Parade, set for Saturday morning, April 3.

Latest entries include the Marine Corps Mounted Color Guard, the Marine Corps Band and a complete 250-man unit representing the Al Bahr Shrine. The Shriners will have their usual full contingent of everything from bands to clowns to miniature automobiles.

Other entries: KGB Chicken, Smokey the Bear, Coast Guard Color Guard, San Diego County Sheriffs Rangers Mounted Color Guard, Ozzie's Marching Band (with Twirlers), the San Diego Unicycle Club and the Mt. Miguel Percussion Band.

The Old Time Days Assn. can be reached at 469-9621.

Hosted Reception For John Ortman

The public is invited to a hosted reception for John Ortman 5-7 p.m. Thursday, March 11 at Grossmont Gardens, 5480 Marengo, La Mesa.

Ortman, operator of Farrell's franchises locally, is a candidate for supervisor of the second district — a post which Supervisor Dick Brown is relinquishing at the end of his term.

Masseuses Face Police Charge

Sheriff's deputies charged two El Cajon women with soliciting for prostitution at the Huntress Massage parlor about 5 p.m. Monday.

The parlor is at 8637 Troy st. in Spring Valley.

Officers reported that Eve Barker, 27, and Linda Ann Weeks, 27, both of El Cajon had solicited an undercover officer who visited the parlor.

3 Charged In Porno Shop Action

Two police reports updated last week's report that a Lemon Grove adult book store at 1501 Skyline dr. had been burglarized of $1,315 worth of pornographic films and erotic paraphernalia.

Within five days of the loss, sheriff's deputies charged two 16-year old youths with the burglary and recovered some of the items listed as missing.

Two days later, in a separate action, sheriff's deputies charged the store's manager, 27-year old Jeri Draper, of Lomita Village, with soliciting for a lewd act and soliciting for prostitution.

Officers reported that a male, about 37, had paid to watch porno movies in the "mini theatre" of PW's Adult Book Store at the Skyline address. During the screening the solicitations took place, the victim reported.

The store is operated by Prearre Walter Jones of San Diego, records indicate.

Rain Total Grows

The rain season's total reached 8.51 by press time Wednesday with a total of 1.4 inches recorded since the storm commenced on Monday.

The storm left this year's total well above 5.91 inches recorded by the same date last year.

During this week's downpour, considerable hail fell for several minutes about 8 a.m. Wednesday.

Rain season ends June 30.

Parish Cleans Attics, Cellars for Rummage

St. John of the Cross Roman Catholic Church holds its 4th annual parish-wide "Springtime Attic and Cellar Sale' next week, March 11 through 14.

A wide variety of articles, collected by the parishioners throughout the past year, will be offered for public sale. Among items collected are 400 pairs of shoes in good condition, priced from a dime to a dollar. Also, thousands of articles of clothing, appliances, toys, games and books.

A side feature of the rummage sale is the Boutique Section. Dishes, glassware and painting are among the items at the boutique.

Every family with children in St. John's school will contribute their specialty to a bake sale operated in conjunction with the rummage sale.

Total profits go to St. John's school to be used for educational materials in classrooms and for the Resource Center, a project for children in need of special educational assistance.

Sale hours are 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. March 11 through 13 and from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sunday, March 14.

Items may be donated for the sale by contacting Loretta Stenbeck at 461-2344.

Red Cross Short on Volunteer Personnel

The San Diego County Chapter of the American Red Cross is looking for volunteers interested in both crafts and recreational activities.

Volunteers are needed in both day and evening hours. Adults for youth work are urgently needed. Community relations can use volunteer speakers, artists and photographers.

Hospital interviews will be held March 22 at 5:30 p.m. at the U. S. Naval Hospital, Naval Regional Medical Center, Red Cross Lounge, Building 7.

Mexican Dinner Sun. Helps Jamul 4-H Club

The annual Mexican Dinner sponsored by the Rancho Grande 4-H Club is held Sunday at the St. Pius X Catholic Church on Lyons Valley rd. and Jamul dr. in Jamul.

The dinner is a benefit for Jamul 4-H activities at the Southern California Exposition.

Adults pay $2.50 and children $1.50 for an all-you-can-eat, authentic Mexican feast at the church from 1 to 5 p.m.

Lattman has coached a boys basketball team for the past three years for the Spring Valley Park and Recreation District. He has also helped in Little League baseball in Spring Valley.

Two years as president of Mt. Miguel's Key Club are also to his credit.

'Vision Week' Aimed At Aiding Seniors

"Save Your Vision Week" starts Sunday and is aimed at reminding citizens that vision changes that occur normally with aging should not prevent them for participating fully in life.

According to the S.D. County Optometric Society advancements in vision care have overcome some of the greatest concerns of older Americans, such as glaucoma, retinal disorders, cataract and certain systemic diseases.

The problem of giving up driving due to aging processes is becoming rare but older citizens are taught to recognize their vision limitations.

Salt Lake Executive Is Mormon Speaker

Elder Arthur S. Anderson will be the featured speaker at a 10 a.m. conference meeting Sunday, of the San Diego South Stake of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormon) at 8472 Blossom lane, Spring Valley.

Arthur S. Anderson

Anderson, a Regional Representative of the Church's Quorum of the 12 Apostles, has served as a bishop, a mission president, and in other church administrative roles. He is president of a Salt Lake City advertising firm.

The public is invited to attend the conference session along with the 2,000 Mormons in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area, according to South Stake Bishop Richard J. Archibald of 7869 Lansing dr., Lemon Grove.

Special music will be a feature of the meeting.

Class Teaches Wildflower ID

Spring wild flowers will soon be in bloom and many San Diegans will be taking long tours to enjoy their beauty.

To help the sightseers gear up for the season UC San Diego Extension is offering a course in spring wildflower identification.

Titled "Spring Wildflowers — How to Know Them," the course will be held 9 a.m. to noon on Saturdays, March 20 through May 22 at Palomar College, San Marcos.

Emphasis will be placed on the use of an illustrated manual "key" rather than memorization. Students will visit Anza Borrego Desert, the Cuyamaca Mountains, a coastal lagoon and burned areas on field trips held throughout the course.

They'll learn to recognize such wildflowers as wild celery, poison hemlock, sweet fennel and squaw bush, and to differentiate between the edible and noxious weeds in their own gardens.

To register, call the Extension Office, 452-2400.

New Service for Home Federal S&L

Robert P. Lawler, assistant vice president of Home Federal Savings and Loan, will head the Centralized Credit Department of the firm.

The new department will provide in-depth borrower analysis related to larger loan projects.

The service has been supplied previously but a more sophisticated system will be employed.

Rapid growth of the firm required additional training to HFS&L loan officers.

Symphony Here to Honor Composer's Adopted Land

A French immigrant composer will be rewarded a world premiere for his four-year labor of love for America, a Bicentennial symphony.

The work, "America 1976" by Jacques Berlinski, will be performed by the San Diego Symphony, the 120-voice San Diego Symphonic Chorale and narrated by the internationally acclaimed bass-baritone George London in May under the baton of Conductor Peter Eros.

Berlinski, who lives in a modest home near Los Angeles, has found life hard since coming from France eight years ago. He read about the Bicentennial celebration while studying for his citizenship in 1970. He soon got the idea for a musical salute to commemorate the occasion.

Four years later the work was down on paper and Berlinski chanced to read a newspaper story on Conductor Eros. He mailed his work to Eros for perusal.

"He called me on the telephone the next day," Berlinski recalls. "He said to me, Mr. Berlinski, you must love America very much. When someone writes like this today, I accept it with both hands."

Berlinski calls "America 1976" his "legacy."

"Somebody in prison sees a person pass by. He thinks if he could only go out and walk like that man. That is the way America is to the world. Some Americans may not realize that. But the people of the world know it. This is one of where there is still liberty," he said.

Tickets are available at the Civic Theatre Box Office. Performances are Thursday and Friday, May 6 and 7 at 8 p.m. in the Civic Theatre and Sunday, May 9 at 2:30 p.m.

Card Party Highlights Month for Lodge 409

The Annual Salad Luncheon and Card Party, presented by Mesa Jewel Rebekah Lodge No. 409, is held Thursday, March 18 at noon at 3911 Kansas st., San Diego.

A bazaar, door prizes and a white elephant sale are among the attractions. Mrs. Irene Hoss is the general chairman of the event.

Also on tap is a square dance presentation by the Colina Del Sol Square Dancers.

Members are taking reservations.

All members of the order and guests are welcome to attend. Proceeds will go toward the Order's philanthropic work.

The lodge also meets March 17, 7:30 p.m. at the VFW Hall at 2885 Imperial ave., Lemon Grove.

Antique Sale, Show Readied by Women

The Sweetwater Woman's Club's annual Antique Show and Sale will be held this Spring instead of in the Fall as has been the custom.

It will be at the clubhouse at 3855 Sweetwater rd., Bonita noon-9 on April 1-2 and noon-6 April 3.

Luncheon and dessert will be on sale. Donation for admission is $1.25.

Korla Pandit Due At Grove Theatre

Internationally-famous Eastern mystic organ artist Korla Pandit will be presented at 8 p.m. Saturday, March 13 at the Southland Music Center, 3459 Imperial ave., in Lemon Grove.

The concert will be a mystical journey via the spiritual wave of sound. Pandit will open the concert with the Magnetic Theme — a true, Tibetan Raga, that stimulates the Third Eye — drawing together all who are in tune, awakening the inner self and opening the Eye of Wisdom.

Korla was born in New Delhi, India, the grand nephew of Nehru's sister, Madame Pandit and was educated in continental Europe. He is one of TV's earliest entertainers, star of over 900 live TV shows and has won the Best Show Award by TV Guide, Top Male Personality by Radio and TV Life and Top award for his programming of West Coast Television.

Reservations may be made by phone (463-0308) or by mail. Tickets are $2.50 each.

Widows to Brunch

The Society of Military Widows holds its quarterly brunch at noon, Sunday, March 14, at the Commissioned Officers Mess, U. S. Naval Station, San Diego.

Mrs. William E. McCarson is accepting reservations at 435-4079, which must be received by Wednesday.

Greeting guests will be Mrs. J. D. Alliette, Hospitality Chairman, assisted by members of her committee.

A business meeting follows.

Free Classes at Library

The County Library at Santee and Grossmont College are co-sponsoring a six-week series "Gathering Local History." The free classes are taught by Joe Bradley on Fridays 10-12 noon beginning March 5.

Classes will be at the library, 10515 Mission Gorge rd. the last corners on earth

TWO CENTURIES OF FASHIONS will be featured Wednesday, March 10 at the Casa de Oro Oxbow Inn as the Spring Valley Woman's Club presents "Past and Present — 1776 to 1976," a fashion show benefit. Club members Betty Dobbins and Marlene Ketell model two of the outfits furnished by Penina's Phash-Inns, a Spring Valley shop.

Home Society Needs Foster Parents, Day Care Helpers

Children's Home Society is seeking additional families to become day-care or foster parents for children who need temporary day care. The children range from infants through elementary school age. Sometimes only one child is involved, sometimes two or more brothers and sisters need to be placed together.

Children's Home Society provides family day care for young babies and toddlers while parents are working or completing their education. Foster family care is provided for children awaiting adoption and for children needing temporary care while parents are working out family problems.

There is a need for pre-adoptive foster homes for infants and toddlers, and especially for older children, particularly black children. The agency is also seeking additional day-care homes for the increasing number of infants and toddlers whose parents need a secure family setting for their children during normal working hours.

Foster and family-day-care parents receive board payments for the actual time the child is in the home. Medical care is also provided.

Families interested should call the Children's Home Society office in San Diego, 278-7800.

Starlight Announces Summer Schedule

The San Diego Civic Light Opera Association has announced selections for the summer season.

"My Fair Lady," based on George Bernard Shaw's classic, "Pygmalion," heads the billing, opening on July 8.

Rogers and Hammerstein's portrayal of "Carousel" is the second scheduling, opening on July 29.

The final event of the summer season will be Rogers and Hammerstein's "Sound of Music," based on Maria Augusta Trapp's autobiographical account of the singing Trapp family.

Starlight has scheduled eight performances of each show. Tickets are now on sale at the box office.

Opera Auditions For 'Carmen' Roles

Opera Under The Stars, a San Diego-based professional opera company will audition singers for principal and secondary roles for the opera "Carmen" on Saturday, between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. at 109 West "C" st., San Digeo.

The concert, to be sung in French, will be presented with full orchestra and chorus July 12, 14 and 16 in Balboa Park.

All roles are open, according to producer Charles Curtis. Audition appointments may be arranged by calling Curtis at 276-6078. An accompanist will be provided.

Opera Under The Stars, returning for its second season, is presented as a community service of San Diego Evening College in cooperation with the San Diego Parks and Recreation Department's Evenings in the Park Series.

Demo, Exhibit Are Foothills Art Events

The Foothills Art Association is sponsoring two programs this month.

There will be a free demonstration of oil painting at the Ben Polak Fine Arts Center, 8053 University ave., tonight at 7 p.m. Guest artist will be Lynn Meyer, known for her landscapes, still lifes and floral designs. Refreshments will be available.

On March 14 there will be a reception in honor of Marian Christie's one-person art show at the Ben Polak Fine Arts Center from 2 to 4 p.m. An exhibit of Mrs. Christie's oil paintings will be on display at the Center on Saturdays and Sundays from 1 to 5 p.m. through March.

CWSS Meets Tonight

Revolutionary Feminism" will be the topic of a 7:30 p.m. Friday presentation by Dr. Carolyn Platt for the Feminist Forum sponsored by the Center for Women's Studies and Services (CWSS). The Forum will be at CWSS, 908 'F' st.

Dr. Platt, a professor in the Women's Studies program at S.D. State U., will discuss connections between socialist and feminist movements.

VFW Teen-Dance At Capacity Again

The monthly Teen-Dance sponsored by the L.G. VFW Post 2082 drew a capacity crowd again, reported Dick Bales, dance chairman.

In addition to the big, well-behaved turnout, the dance was attended by the VFW State Commander, who was in town for a convention.

At the February 27 dance, door prizes were won by:

Brenda Barton, two shrimp dinners at Pal's

Andy Bonilla, car load ticket for Ace Drive-in

Marty Castillo, savings bond given by Jack Martin

A record album was contributed by Art Spencer who puts the show on and a gift certificate was given by College Grove Carmel Corn.

Bales said Teen-Dance meeting is scheduled tonight at 7 for the Junior Committee. The Senior Committee meets at 8 p.m.

The next dance is scheduled for March 26, 7 to 11 p.m. Those 14 through 17 are invited and ID's are required.

The S.D. Chapter of the National Organization for Women (NOW) is holding an orientation meeting for prospective members tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the Golden Hills Recreation Center (Balboa Park).

HOME-COOKED

This Week's RECIPE

Sea Food Chinese Style

These columns of late have been cruising the snack circuit. In fact, the last main course recipe was our early January "Sweet and Sour Meatballs."

We're back on the meal kick today, again with an oriental influence, but this time we add a seaside accent.

SWEET AND SOUR FISH

(Makes four servings)

1 2/3 cups (14 oz.) round peeled tomatoes
1/4 cup cider vinegar
4 tsp. soy sauce
1 tbsp. cornstarch
1/3 cup sugar
1/2 tsp. ground ginger
2 tbsp. oil
1 crushed clove garlic
1/4 cup chopped onion
1/2 cup diagonally sliced green onions
1/2 cup diagonally sliced carrots
1 cup green pepper pieces
1 lb. well thawed cod, sole or turbot fillets
Hot cooked rice.

Drain tomatoes, reserving 2 tablespoons tomato juice. Cut tomatoes into quarters. Mix vinegar, soy sauce, cornstarch, sugar and ginger until smooth. Heat oil in large skillet over medium high heat. Saute garlic, onion, green onions, carrots and green pepper one minute. Stir in vinegar mixture and cut-up tomatoes with reserved juice.

Cut fish fillets into 4 portions. Add to skillet. Cover and simmer 5-8 minutes. Remove cover; boil one-half minute, stirring gently. Serve over hot rice.

PIE Program Seeks Students

Pacific Intercultural Exchange is now accepting applications from local teenagers for the P.I.E. study abroad programs. The Exchange is a world-wide corporation operating student exchange programs under State Department guidelines.

Students, between 15 and 18, will live with families and attend school in the host country. Students may select from such countries as Australia, Brazil, Ecuador, El Salvador, France, Japan, Netherlands, Paraguay and Venezuela.

A variety of programs are available including, language enrichment programs, summer homestays, and six-month or one-year homestay/study programs in Europe, South America, Japan or Australia.

Interested students may obtain information and applications by writing Linda Dunn, 1569 Rosecrans, San Diego, 92106, or telephoning 225-0262.

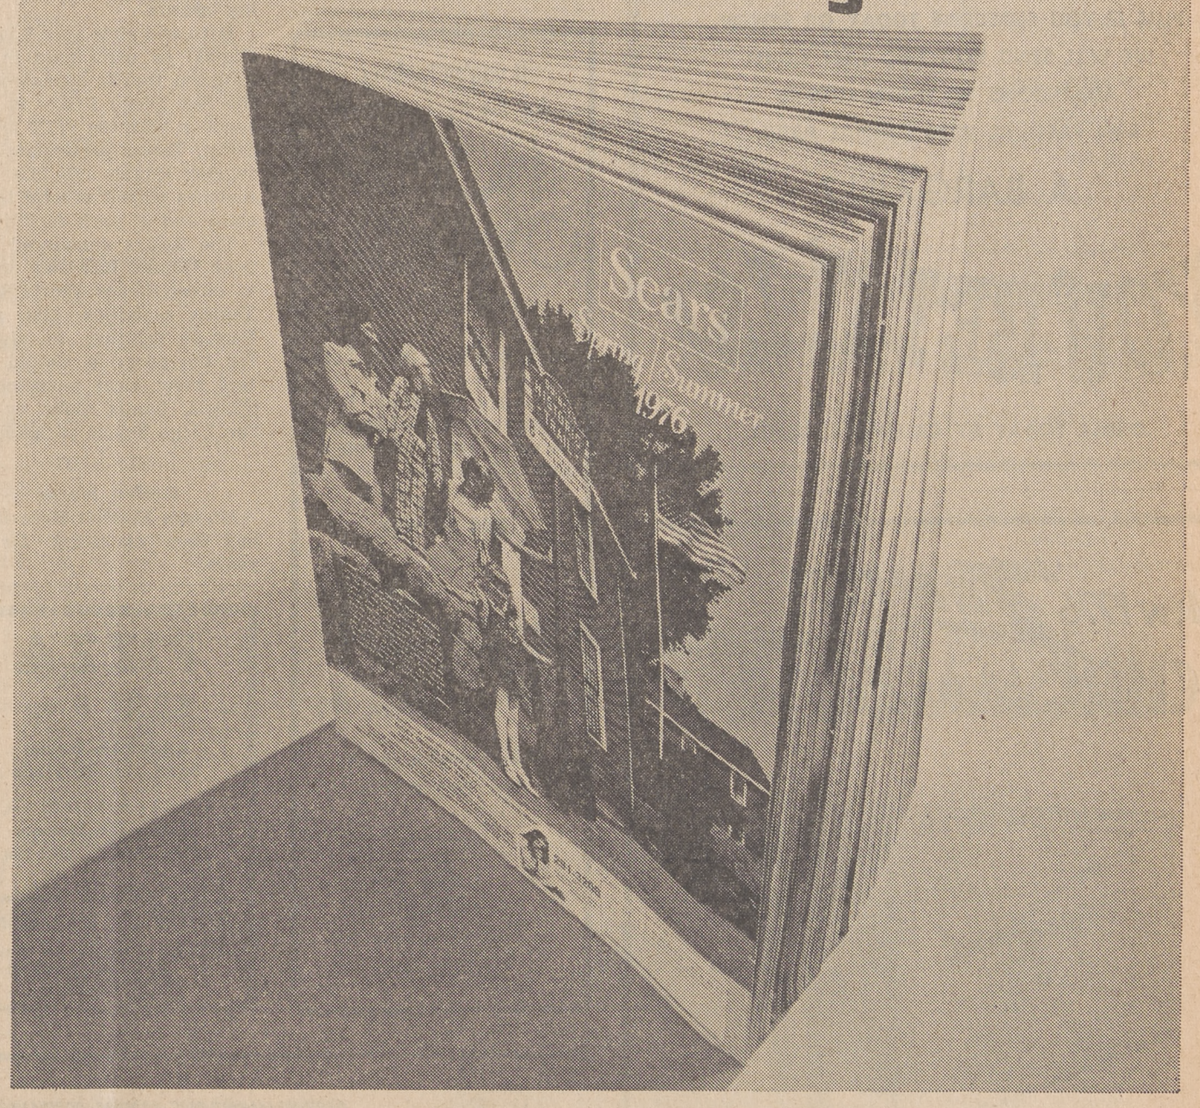
Looking for energy savings? Check the Sears catalog.



When the energy crunch sent utility bills soaring, Sears cut back like everybody else. They turned off 50% of their lights. Raised air conditioning temperatures. Turned escalators on only during business hours. Turned parking lights off 45 minutes after closing. And so on.

But Sears is the giant among retailers... and experts at bringing the public whatever it needs, wherever it is. So Sears is also a leader among appliance manufacturers in taking energy savings one step further... to their customers. With an aggressive research and development program to make appliances more energy efficient.

Already on the market is a 17-cubic-foot refrigerator that requires 40% less electricity to operate and can save $500 over its life. And there's a new dishwasher that reduces electrical consumption by 33%.

Sears knows that helping customers save energy is good business. So do we. That's why we've been helping our commercial/industrial customers conserve for the past five years. If you could use a little help, call us. We have enough energy-saving ideas to fill a catalog... even Sears'.

2 from Lemon Grove To Race in Laughlin

Two Lemon Grove car reeing enthusiasts will be participating in the Laughlin, Nevada 350 this Saturday. Mario Alesi of Alesi Plumbing and Darrel Wellard from the Off-Road Center will be racing a two-seat, Chenoweth modified dune buggy in the rugged 350-mile competition.

Alesi is past winner of the 1974 and 1975 Baja 500 off-road race and the 1975 Baja 1000.

Lakeside Horse Show Is Police Benefit

A benefit horse show to raise funds for San Diego City police participation in the 1976 Police Olympics has been scheduled for Sunday at the Tumbleweed Arena in Lakeside.

Sponsored by the San Diego Police Athletic Federation, the open-point show will begin at 8:30 a.m. Admission to the 31-event show is free, although exhibitors are charged entry fees.

Receipts are used to defray the expenses of transporting ten horses to the week-long Police Olympics in San Jose.

The Arena for Sunday's show is located on Willow rd.

Helix Colt Sign Ups

Sign-ups for the Helix Colt League are held March 6 and 13 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Helix High Varsity Baseball Field. Registration donation is $20 and applicants must bring birth certificates. The league is open to youngsters ages 15 and 16.

Garlits 'Un-retires' for Bakersfield March Meet

Don "Big Daddy" Garlits is among the early entrants for this year's Bakersfield "March meet." Scheduled for Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The event is expected to draw competitors from all across the U. S. and Canada. However, the big news is the return of Garlits to the spot — Famoso Drag Strip — that launched "Big Daddy" on his domination of the sport of drag racing, some 17-years ago.

It was 1959 that Garlits, the skinny kid from the swamp lands of Florida accepted the challenge from the "best in the West" — a move they have regretted ever since. He didn't win that first Bakersfield Fuel & Gas Championship, but he has won the event twice; in 1965 and 1971; to become the only two-time winner of the annual race.

Garlits announced his "retirement-of-sorts" last fall at the conclusion of the NHRA World Championship finals (which he won enroute to his first NHRA World Championship.) And, while he has relented somewhat, "Bakersfield '76" will be Garlits' only major event appearance west of the Rockies in 1976. He will be among some seventy of the fastest AA/Fuel dragsters ever assembled as they go after a share of the cash and awards up for grabs.

This year's total posted purse and awards are expected to exceed $110,000, thus making it the largest in "March Meet" history. All eight NHRA eliminators will be featured; Top Fuel, Funny Car, Pro Comp, Comp., Modified, Super Stock and Stock.

"Bakersfield '76" will again provide free overnight camping area for the outdoors type. This has become an increasingly popular attraction each year, so Kern County Racing Association officials plan to set aside another 50 acres of dust free asphalt.

Tech Inspection will be held all-day Friday, March 5 and until noon Saturday. Qualifying in all categories until 5 p.m. Saturday, that is except for Top Fuel, which will again offer the popular Sunday morning "one-shot" session. Final eliminations will commence at 11 a.m. Sunday.

Telephone contact: John Durbin at (805) 399-5351 or 399-3440.

Helix Riflemen 1st in CIF Shoot

For the second consecutive year, Helix High School's varsity rifle team placed first in the annual San Diego County CIF shoot-off held recently at San Diego High.

The six students competing for the varsity team were Mark DiCiero, Keith Durham, David Eddy, Bob Johnston, Mike Kiss and Paul Weidinger. Firing .22 calibre rifles, the team totaled 1167 points and beat the second place team, Army-Navy Academy, by 19 points.

The JV rifle team placed second in the finals, being narrowly defeated by San Diego High.

All Jaws Games Set For KSDO Airing

All San Diego Jaws professional soccer home and away games will be broadcast live on KSDO radio.

The North American Soccer League Franchise's entire 27 game schedule, including contests with teams led by superstars Kyle Rote, Jr. and Pele, will be brought live to San Diego fans on 1130 on the am dial.

The first game to be broadcast will be a March 12 preseason contest featuring Kyle Rote, Jr. and the Dallas Tornado. That will be followed by a broadcast of the game with Pele and the New York Cosmos on March 24.

Celebrity Invitational For Ski Enthusiasts

Screen star Jill St. John and the Paul Masson Vineyards of California will co-host a Celebrity Invitational for the benefit of the United States Ski Team on Easter Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, in Park City, Utah.

The three-day event — April 18, 19 and 20 — will begin Easter Sunday afternoon, with a Welcoming Party, followed by a series of races scheduled over the next two days pitting the U. S. Ski Team against noted celebrities. Also planned are a Monday evening Awards Banquet and a Farewell Barbecue on Tuesday afternoon.

Limited tickets are now available at $500 a person and $750 per couple. Tickets include all events, meals and accommodations. Invitations will be issued to prominent U. S. Ski Team supporters around the country. All proceeds will benefit the U. S. Ski Team.

The U. S. Ski Team may be reached at Box 100, Park City, Utah 84060.

Avondale Tops In 'Superstar' Tests

Avondale topped the S.V. Park and Rec. District Superstars '76 finals with 25 points. Kempton school had 20 and Rancho, 18.

Events included basketball, 50-yard Dash, Hockey, Bowling, Broad Jump and Throwing.

Individual winners:

Girls

8 and under — Kelly Brown
9-1—Joy Williams, Rancho
11-12—Vicky Rerouin, Avondale

Boys

8 and under — Mark Sisson, Avondale
9-10 — Darren Allen Kempton
11-12 — Donald Conroy, Avondale and Todd Williams Rancho

The meet was held at Rancho school.

Sign-up Time For Jr. World Tennis

The Junior World Team Tennis program, which last year included nearly 60 teams in 6 leagues throughout San Diego County, is now accepting applications for the coming season.

Boys and girls ages 9-14 are eligible to participate in the program that is sponsored by the San Diego Friars in conjunction with the WTT league office. Teams participate in a regular league schedule with matches played at local tennis clubs and at park facilities.

The Friars announced that John Holmes has been named to direct Junior World Team Tennis activities this year. Persons wanting to sign-up for the program should contact their local participating schools, tennis clubs or the San Diego Friars at 298-9855.

Connors to Face Former Partner In Court Finals

Erik Van Dillen, who had more success playing with Jimmy Connors than against him, might have the opportunity to do both in the $100,000 Independent Players Assn. finals March 16-21 at La Costa.

Van Dillen, native Californian and former USC All-American, is the latest to enter the select 16-man field for the event that rewards the winner with $30,000.

Also in the tournament is Connors, with whom Van Dillen has often paired in doubles competition to achieve his most significant successes. Last month they won at Birmingham. He is, however, a formidable doubles player on his own and two summers ago reached the semi-finals at Wimbledon with Charles Pasarell.

His best showing in singles this year was at Birmingham where he reached the semi-finals.

Van Dillen will have to concern himself with more than just Connors in the La Costa event. Also entered are Ilie Nastase, Guillermo Vilas, Roscoe Tanner, Vitas Gerulaitis, Marty Riessen, Haroom Rahim and Sandy Mayer.

Matches will be played starting at 1 and 7 p.m. Tuesday through Friday and at noon both Saturday and Sunday.

Reserved seats start at $4 and may be purchased at La Costa, Ticketron outlets or by mail: Write La Costa Tournament, La Costa, Costa Del Mar rd., Carlsbad, Ca 92008.

TAKE FIVE

By John E. Wirges

One of the nice things about being a free loading writer is the guys you get to meet in such strange places as locker rooms, bars, business offices, bars, hotels, bars, resorts, bars, luncheons, bars, golf courses, and of course, bars.

There are certain liabilities that go along with the job. Like, for instance, what kind of pleasure is there in watching the Padres lose 600 games in six years? And do you know what the home record of the Chargers has been in the last half dozen years? When the Sails were luffed, a lot of sour stomachs were avoided.

You don't have to be a loser to live in San Diego or parts thereof, but if you're a jock, it helps. Apparently. It could be said.

But like all rules of thumb, forefinger or fist, that ain't necessarily the way it is, in all cases. The Padres have come of age, of late and watching them this year ought to be one of God's listed pleasures for us earth folks.

Randy Jones opened the door and if enough of the other kids come through, and the front office gets lucky and signs Messersmith and IF Willie Davis decides to put out 437 per cent, the Padres could be in serious contention as late as mid-August.

And that's a summer worth looking forward to. Just think, after years of nothing, our own local leather and ash brigade is just 20 games off in a long season of becoming the darlings of baseball.

And after years of wailing at the wall, the Chargers are showing signs of getting football men in football positions and all the world knows the only way for them to move is up. Why, the way things are going, Charger-wise, we might even enjoy the Oakland games next year.

If the Mariners ever shed their shadowy possessor and get some home owning, even if it's Peter "The Great" Graham, the ice at the Sports Arena might get more lookin' at than all the cocktails in Hotel Circle.

While it is kind of nice to sit down and watch pros doing a job, and even get semi paid for it, the best of this free loading life is watching youngsters developing their skills and talents to challenge the play for pay crowd for steady employment.

Some of the best sports action in our town, in our county or in the state, is free or priced low-down on high school and college campuses all over our landscape.

It's a pure pleasure to watch these young men and women running, jumping, twirling, hitting, blocking, tackling, swimming, dancing, dashing, and all the other contortions of the acrobatic art known as athletics.

It may be a sign of age, but youngsters seem to be getting better, faster, smarter, quicker and, unfortunately, younger every year.

One athletic pursuit that transcends all age groups, especially in our corner of the world, is the smacking of a little white ball into a hole in the ground.

Old gaffers in the 90's still get out and pitch and putt their way around courses both large and small and usually in scores under their age.

They share the same tee with toddlers just learning to lie, improve their placements under a covering mutter of "winter rules," forget strokes, and in general, behave a great deal like grown up players.

They start at the age of four or five and by the time they get 10 or 11 they are tournament veterans, own a flock of trophies and have a groved swing nailed down to perfection. Like the ancient set, they ain't long off the tee, but they're straight down the middle and deadly in close.

In everything save the game, they're still kids, but put a club in their hands and they change to ageless hustlers quicker that the backswing on a two inch putt.

I share the game with my 9-year old son Tommy. He's been taking lessons from Donna Abrego over at Presidio Hills Golf Course, where they specialize in teaching beginners and swingers down to the age of four.

After three lessons, one tournament, and maybe eight rounds of golf, Tommy scored an ace. A hole-in-one. A nine iron to the cup.

I had only seen one other in more than 30 years of play. He wasn't even excited. You can't help but hate kids at a time like that.

The more I think of it, the more I think maybe we ought to bar those damn kids from golf until they're over 21 years of age.

Aztec Cagers Take 14-12 Record to PCAA Tourney

A revived San Diego State U. basketball team travels to Stockton this week to meet San Jose State in the first round of the Pacific Coast Athletic Assn. tournament.

The tournament, in its first year, pits the top four qualified teams in the PCAA in a single elimination event to determine the conference's representative in the NCAA Playoffs March 13 in Eugene, Oregon.

San Diego State meets San Jose State at 7 p.m. Saturday in Stockton with Fullerton meeting Pacific in the 9 p.m. game.

Saturday's winners meet for the championship at 4 p.m. on Sunday.

The Aztecs take a 14-12 overall mark into the tournament after splitting a pair of PCAA games last week with Fresno State and Long Beach State. Fresno topped the Aztecs 87-82, but San Diego snapped a six game losing streak by beating Long Beach 67-62 in overtime.

The overtime win over Long Beach couldn't have come at a better time for coach Tim Zezie's Aztecs. Vezie's team was playing very well prior to the six game losing streak, but just couldn't seem to put things together during the streak. The win now gives San Diego State some much needed momentum heading into the tournament.

Doug Rader Signs; Padres List at 25

Newly-acquired third baseman Doug Rader heads a list of five San Diego Padres coming to terms for the 1976 season it was announced this week by Padres General Manager Peter Bavasi.

Joining the slick-fielding third baseman under contract are pitchers Rich Folkers and Mike Dupree, infielder Ted Kubiak and outfielder Jerry Turner. The group raises to 25 the number of players signed on the club's 36-man spring training roster.

Acquired in trade from the Houston Astros last December for pitchers Joe McIntosh and Larry Hardy, Rader promises to give the Padres the club's best fielding third baseman in history. The winner of five Gold Glove Awards from 1970-74, Rader was the top fielding third baseman in the National League last season with a .971 percentage although he failed to win another Gold Glove as presented by The Sporting News.

The 31-year-old Rader hit .223 for the Astros last year with 12 home runs and 48 runs batted in, but was hampered by some foot problems which have since cleared up. Playing more than half the season on natural grass should lessen greatly the chances of a recurrence.

Rader comes to the Padres with a career batting average of .250 in nine major league seasons (all with Houston) including top marks of .267 in 98 games in 1968 and .257 in 1974. Over his nine campaigns, he's averaging close to 15 home runs and 70 RBI per year.

Folkers May Start

Lefthander Rich Folkers will be heading into his second season with the club and should split his action again this year between the bullpen and the starting rotation as the campaign wears on.

Folkers, 29, was 6-11, 4.18 a year ago, but didn't really hit his stride until the second half of the season. He made his first 16 appearances last season out of the bullpen and then had split duty in the next 29 (15 as a starter and 14 in relief). As a starter he was 5-8, 3.60 while in relief he was 1-3, 5.36.

Twice he beat Montreal and San Francisco and stopped the World Champion Cincinnati Reds on a three-hitter on Sept. 9 by an 11-2 count.

The Padres will be getting their first real look at Mike Dupree as he'll be making his initial visit to the major league spring camp. Dupree began as a third baseman and played a little outfield before being switched to the mound towards the end of last season at Alexandria.

The 22-year-old Dupree responded to the move by going 5-0, 2.16 in 14 outings with 31 in 33 innings of work plus three saves. Additionally, he hit .266 for the Aces. Actually, hitting has never been much of a problem for Dupree as he led the Northwest League in his first professional season in 1973 with a .351 mark and then he hit .298 at Alexandria in 1974.

Infielder Kubiak

San Diego will again be looking to the 33-year-old Kubiak for help all the way around the infield. Kubiak played every position in the infield last year for the Padres except shortstop as he hit .224.

Kubiak actually began the 1975 season with the Oakland A's in the American League but came over to the Padres in mid-May in trade for pitcher Sonny Siebert. While with Oakland he hit .250 in 20 games.

Completing the latest list of signings is outfielder Jerry Turner who just might be the best bet amongst the rookies to make the major league club this season.

Turner, 22, was the runner-up in the batting race in the Pacific Coast League last season as he hit .329 at Hawaii in leading the Islanders to the PCL title. He led the circuit in hits (176) and placed on the All-PCL team and the Topps Class AAA All-Star team.

Chargers Sign Sonny Sixkiller

The San Diego Chargers have signed quarterback Sonny Sixkiller to a free agent contract. Terms were not disclosed.

Career passing champion at the U. of Washington from 1970-72, the 5-foot-11, 185-pound Cherokee Indian played with the Hawaiians of the World Football League in 1975.

Sixkiller spent summer training camp with the L.A. Rams as a free agent rookie in 1973. Then a Rams' executive, Charger general manager Johnny Sanders remembers Sixkiller:

"He was impressive. He could really throw the ball and he had that charisma. The Rams probably would have kept him if they hadn't drafted Ron Jaworski on the second round and also had John Hadl and James Harris."

After leaving the Rams, Sixkiller had a feature role in the movie, "The Longest Yard," with Burt Reynolds. He played briefly with Toronto of the Canadian League in 1974.

At Washington, Sixkiller led the nation in passing in 1970 with 186 completions for 2,303 yards and 15 touchdowns. He holds other Husky records for career yardage (5,496), completions (385) and touchdown passes (35) and individual game yardage (409 vs. UCLA in 1970), completions (30 vs. USC and Oregon State in 1970) and touchdown passes (six vs. UCLA in 1970).

Sixkiller becomes the fourth quarterback on the Chargers roster. Others are Dan Fouts, Jesse Freitas and Bobby Douglass.

Aztec Basketball Team at Loyola

One of the busiest college baseball teams in the country gets a break until Saturday when the S.D. State Aztecs travel to Los Angeles for a noon doubleheader with Loyola U.

Tuesday the Aztecs are in Pomona for a single game with Cal Poly.

San Diego State is 7-9 on the year after a four game series with No. 1 ranked U. of Arizona last week in Tucson.

The Aztecs stopped the Wildcats 7-6 in the first game of the series and then lost three straight by scores of 11-5, 5-3 and 14-13. Walt Witczak won the first game for the Aztecs with a three-run home run in the ninth inning. In the final game of the series, the Aztecs tied the game at 13-13 with a five-run rally in the ninth inning, only to have the Wildcats score in the bottom of the inning to win the game.

Witczak hit two home runs in the series to bring his season total to three while catcher Kevin Kennedy hit his fourth of the year and Chick Valley and Kevin McWhirter got their second.

CRA Sprints for SB Park Sunday

The first CRA sprint car program at South Bay Park Speedway will involve 76 laps of racing Sunday. Time trials will begin at 1:30 p.m. and a trophy dash is set for 2:30 p.m.

The program will consist of four-lap dash, four 10-lap heats, a 12-lap semi main and a 20-lap feature with 24 of the open-wheelers taking the green flag. Among the starters is Lee Robeson of Spring Valley.

Fans can reach the track by taking Interstate 805 south to the Otay Mesa Road eurnoff. Then it's five miles east to the facility.

Tag Team Champs Battle Tuesday

Chavo and "Gory" Gorilla, a father-son team, will put their American tag-team championship on the line Tuesday night at the Coliseum against Roddy Piper and Black Baron.

On the undercard is Pork-chop vs. Fabulous Frank. Raul Mata vs. Frank Hester plus another bout completes the Tuesday card.

First bout is 7:30 p.m.

Softball Playoffs Sunday in Valley

State Track Meet Set for Saturday

The S.D. State track team will host the first of its three dual track meets this season with a 12:30 p.m. meet Saturday with Nevada (Las Vegas) on Choc Sportsman Oval on the Aztec campus.

The Aztecs started the season two weeks ago by blistering Cal Poly (Pomona) 115-39 in a dual meet and then ran in a four-way non-scoring meet with Long Beach State, UC Irvine and USC last week.

USC dominated the four-way meet, but the Aztecs did manage some good marks. Sophomore Odie Huffman clocked a 1:52.0 in finishing second in the 800-meter run, Tom Lux was third in the 5,000 meters in 14:43.4 and Mike Avrea fourth in 15:10.4 while Quentin Wheeler finishing second in the 400-meter intermediate hurdles in 51.8.

Shot putter Jean Beaudry finished fourth in his event with a heave of 53-1½ while Michael Packer was third in the javelin with a mark of 209-0 and Mike Selman was fourth with a throw of 197-9.

Toreros Await NCAA Decision

It's an important week for USD's basketball team and their head coach Jim Brovelli. This is when NCAA announces who will make the Division II playoffs. The Toreros appear to have an excellent chance as they finished the season with a 80-69 victory over Chapman College, giving USD a 15-10 for the year. The announcement will be made on Saturday during a NCAA telephone hookup.

It's the best winning percentage accumulated by coach Brovelli in his three seasons at USD. His first year at USD his team finished 15-11, which earned the Toreros a playoff berth. However, they lost to Sonoma State 60-54 which quickly brought an end to the season.

This year's .600 winning percentage is the fourth best in USD history.

USD's final record is a revelation as to how well this team played in the stretch. After slumping to 9-8 at the end of January, the Toreros won six out of their last eight games. Five of those wins came against NCAA Division II competition, thus, finishing the year with a 8-3 record against Division II.

Pool Fencing Hearing Set

A public hearing on alternate proposals to amend the Zoning Ordinance to require fencing of swimming pools will be heard at 2 p.m. on March 17 before the County Board of Supervisors in room 310 of the County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific highway.

Alternatives contain a definition for the term "swimming pool" and require such pools to be enclosed by a natural barrier, retaining wall, fence, or other structure at least 5 feet high. Both proposals also require that existing pools be fenced within a year of the ordinances' effective date.

Alternative One requires fencing of swimming pools, regardless of the size of the lot in E-1, E-1-A, E-2-B, A-1(1), A-2(1), A-3(1), A-4(1), R-1, R-2, R-2-A, R-1-A, R-1-B, R-1-(15), R-3, R-4, R-5, PRD, PMD, R-P, C, C-1, C-2, M, M-1, M-2, and M-3 zones.

Alternative Two requires fencing of swimming pools on lots one acre or less in size.

The proposals are available for review in room 306 of the County Administration Center now. Eugene Yee is 565-5895 is the telephone contact.

Olympic Skaters In Tonight's Hockey Contest

Two members of the U. S. Olympic Hockey Team will play in this evening's San Diego-New England game at the Sports Arena.

Face-off for the World Hockey Assn. match is 7:30 and the Mariners are spicing the event by offering a free team picture to everyone attending.

San Diego has signed center Bob Dobek to a 10 game try out and New England has done the same with winger Dan Bolduc.

Dobek, a graduate of Bowling Green U., led the U. S. in scoring in its 5 Olympic games with 3 goals and 4 assists, and also in 60 Olympic preparatory contests with 44 goals and 71 assists.

At Bowling Green he led the Central Collegiate Hockey Assn. in scoring two straight years and was all league pick both times.

Bolduc attended Harvard University for 3 years before gaining a spot with the Olympic Skaters. He scored 2 goals in the Olympics and was second to Dobek overall with 41 goals and 31 assists.

Warning Issued for Deadly Street Drug

The county Department of Substance has issued a warning concerning a potentially dangerous street drug being sold in the San Diego area as the active ingredient in marijuana, tetrahydrocannabinol or THC.

The drug being sold as THC is actually phencyclidine or PCP, an animal tranquilizer also know as Angel Dust, Horse Tranks and Elephant. PCP is known to cause coma, amnesia and overdoses, and can be fatal.

Information on PCP and other drugs can be obtained from the 24-hour DEFY Counciling Line, 239-3339.

IRS Offers Free Individual, Small Business Tax Guides

The 1976 editions of "Your Federal Income Tax" and "Tax Guide for Small Business" are available, free of charge, at all Internal Revenue offices. In previous years there was a charge for the books.

"Your Federal Income Tax" contains detailed tax information on such items as interest and dividends, rental income, sales and disposition of assets, standard vs. itemized deductions, and adjustments to income, including moving expenses, sick pay, and employees' business expenses.

The 192-page booklet also summarizes important changes in the tax law and alerts taxpayers to the effect of the changes on their own tax situations.

"Tax Guide for Small Business" provides detailed information on tax matters that may arise in setting up, operating, or disposing of a business, whether it is a sole proprietorship, partnership, or corporation.

"Your Federal Income Tax," IRS Publication 17, and "Tax Guide for Small Business," IRS Publication 334, are also available by mail using the order form in both 1040 and 1040A tax return packages.

State Boosts Unemployed Benefit Maximum, Minimum

The state's Employment Development Department minimum and maximum unemployment benefits increased in January.

The minimum weekly payment was increased from $25 to $30 and the maximum weekly payment from $90 to $104.

The changes are not retroactive and claimants who are now receiving benefits or who filed a claim to begin before January 4, the effective date of the new law, are not affected by the change.

The benefit payment schedule between $30 and $90 is not affected by the change, and weekly benefits ranging from $31 to $89 will continue as before.

The Department said it estimates that about five per cent of the jobless claimants will receive the new minimum of $30 and about 27 per cent of the claimants will receive the new higher payments ranging from $91 through $104.

An explanatory leaflet detailing the changes is available at all unemployment insurance offices.

Tax Credit Due for Low Income Rentals

Assemblyman Wadie P. Deddeh reminded taxpayers they might qualify for up to $45 if they file for the renter's tax credit by the April 15 deadline.

The refund can be secured by filing a state personal income tax statement, and ranges from $25 on income under $5,000 to $45 in income over $8,0000.

Deddeh said, "People not required to file state income tax reports because their income last year was under $3,250 may still be entitled to the renter's credit."

To receive the minimum $25 credit, a 540 personal income tax return is required. The credit will also be refunded to those whose income was above the minimum level if there was no tax liability.

"If on March 1, 1975 you were a resident of California, and a renter of a house, apartment, or room on taxable property, then you are eligible for the credit," Deddeh said.

"If you have filed an income tax return but neglected to include the renter's credit," Deddeh explained, "an amended return on Form 540X or a claim for refund on Form FTB 3543 may be filde."

Any questions regarding the tax credit should be referred to the Franchise Tax Board.

Younger To Be Panelist In Conference on Aging

Evelle J. Younger, Attorney General of California, will be a panelist in a three day conference in Aging to be held by the Western Gerontological Society on March 28, 29 and 30 at the Town and Country Convention Center in Mission Valley.

Mr. Younger will participate in an Institute on "Consumerism and Older Adults," with other representatives of governmental agencies, consumer groups and educational institutions.

Over 60 seminars will be available including "Sexuality and the Older Adult," "Democratic and Republican Platforms on Aging," "Women in the Middle Years," and "Senior Power."

Registration fees are $30 before Friday and $35 thereafter. Special discounts are available to society members, senior citizens and full-time students.

Pre-registration information is available by calling the Coalition of Elders at 234-6493.

New Hospital Officers

George A. Scott has been re-elected for a fourth term as president of the San Diego Hospital Assn., owners of the Donald N. Sharp Memorial Hospital. Also re-elected were James C. Haugh as vice president, Carl M. Esenoff as treasurer and Elliott L. Cushman as secretary.

Gift Shop Owners Can Expect 8-Day Week BoA 'Reporter' Says

Bank of America just released one of a continuing series of "Small Business Reporters" on the business that, according to Dunn & Bradstreet, shows the third highest failure rate — gift shops.

82 out of every 10,000 annually fall victim to undercapitalization and lack of business knowhow, the report says. Also, gift dealers have had to contend with rising costs for wrapping paper, freight and personnel.

A sharp eye for spotting fast-selling merchandise and an artistic sense of display, according to the report, are essential qualities for the gift shop owner. More mundane talents such as knowledge of bookkeeping and inventory control also are essential.

And there is no substitute for hard work. "This is harder than any job you'll ever find," warns one owner. "I find I work 14 hours a day, eight days a week."

Books to Aid Seniors

A book sale will be conducted on the median divider of Broadway between Imperial and Kempf during the Old Time Days Parade Saturday, April 3.

The sale is being sponsored by the Lemon Grove Rotary club and proceeds will go to senior citizens projects in the community and the Interact club at Mt. Miguel High school.

Citizens wishing to contribute books may leave them at John Factors on west Broadway; San Diego Pet Hospital in the same area but across the street, and at the office of Mt. Miguel High School.

Homeowner Exemption Cards Being Mailed By Assessor

A massive mailing of 325,000 Homeowners' Exemption forms is under way, according to County Assessor E. C. "Chuck" Williams.

Included in the mailing are 60,000 1976 Homeowners Claim forms.

"Property owners receiving a green envelope with a green card inside marked "1976 Homeowners' Claim" across the top, should be sure to complete and return it."

Green Cards

The Homeowners' Claim forms are being sent to known owners of property which has been acquired since March 1, 1975, and to those property owners whose parcel numbers have been changed because of lot splits, boundary changes, or other topographical reasons.

"However," Williams said, "this exemption is applicable only to a qualified owner-occupied dwelling which is the claimant's principal place of residence on March 1st of this year.

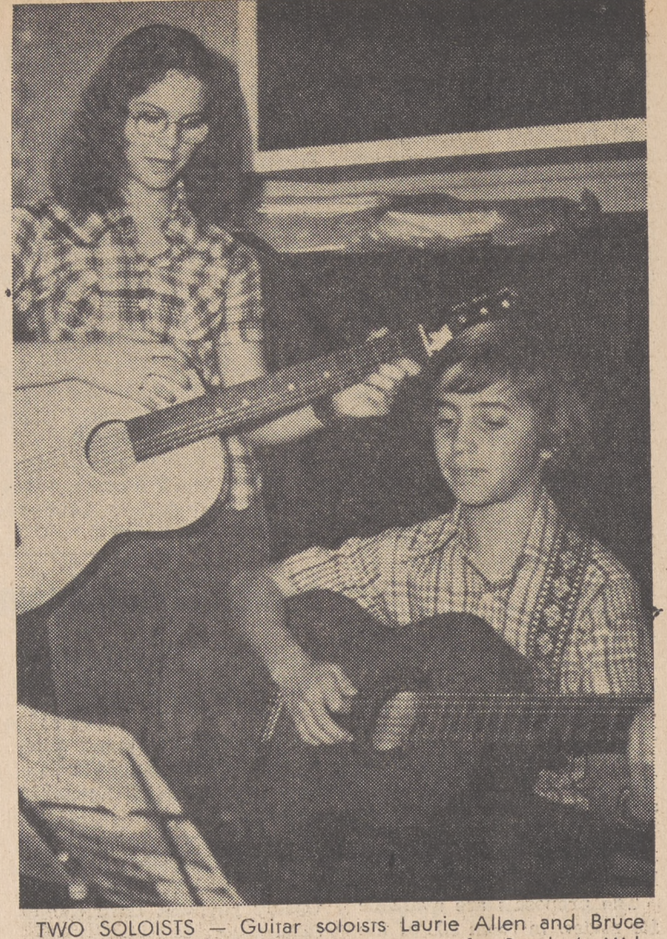
In case of doubt, even though the property owner thinks the exemption is automatic because of previously filing a claim, these cards should be completed with Social Security numbers and signature and mailed back. If it is for a property rented to someone else, just write across the card, 'rental,' or 'do not occupy'."

Yellow Cards

The 265,000 homeowners who received this exemption last year will receive a yellow Homeowners' Exemption Termination/Correction card. "This yellow card should be returned only if the property no longer qualifies, or to correct the information printed on it," Williams points out.

Williams said that the Homeowners' Exemption can potentially save the individual property owner a considerable amount on next year's property taxes. "For instance, qualified home owners living in a $10 a hundred tax rate area could save $175 on their property tax bill with this exemption."

Property owners who do not receive a claim form or termination notice by March 15 should phone the Assessor's Office at 233-5451 for information. The legal deadline for filing for this exemption is 5 p.m., April 15.



TWO SOLOISTS — Guitar soloists Laurie Allen and Bruce Johnson, both of Lemon Grove, prepare for Sunday's Midwinter Recital, Lee Clapham's 19th, at Lemon Grove Junior High. Miss Allen will lead off Part 3 of the program singing "The House of the Rising Sun" and accompanying herself on guitar. Johnson follows with "Landlord, Fill the Flowing Bowl."

Clapham's 19th Recital Is Sunday at LG Jr. High

Over forty piano and guitar students are scheduled to participate in Lemon Grove piano and guitar teacher Lee Clapham's 19th Annual Midwinter Recital on Sunday in Lemon Grove Jr. High School Auditorium.

The program, in three parts, begins at 1:25 p.m. Final numbers will include compositions by Beethoven, Chopin, Liszt, W. C. Handy and Duke Ellington.

Appearing as Honor Performers will be Carla Barnhill; Brenda, Karin and Teresa Bortow; Paula Bryant; Linda and Lisa Jennings, and Judy Manteufel, all of Lemon Grove. Also, Anita Underwood of La Mesa, Robert Kelly of Spring Valley and Roland Gutierrez of San Diego.

Mistress of ceremonies for the event is Marilyn Speckmann, and hostesses are Tracy Finlayson, Barbara Clapham and Laura Speckmann.

An awards presentation follows the program.

The public is invited to the free recital. Lemon Grove Jr. High is located at 7866 Lincoln st.

Bancroft Elem. Students Running To Philadelphia

The fourth, fifth and sixth graders of Bancroft Elementary School and their physical education teacher, Mike Smith, have created a 3,200 mile "Run To Philadelphia." Approximately 300 students and the majority of the teaching staff are participating in the run.

Students run a 220 yard course at least twice during their P.E. time and voluntarily before classes in the morning, at lunch, or during recess times. Eight laps of the course equal one mile.

When a student runs 50 miles he receives a certificate from the student council. Some students have already run 35 miles.

A running tally is being kept of the miles run by each student and class which is marked on a map for everyone to see how far the run has to go. The map is located in the school gymnasium.

Smith estimates that the run, which is taking a route along the southern states and is presently in New Mexico, will take another month or two for completion. And when they are done, says Smith, they may turn around and run back along the northern states.

Savings in January Break Bank's Record

Gibraltar Savings achieved a new record in monthly savings gains of $37 million in January, Rose J. Harris, manager of the bank's Lemon Grove branch said.

May, 1975 had been the previous record month for Gibraltar with an inflow of $35 million.

Declining rates on government securities and other money market instruments accounted for the strong savings performance, Harris said.

Social Workers Provide Free Services to LG School District

By Lee Karalis

San Diego State University is offering a social work unit to the Lemon Grove School District for the seventh consecutive year. Services are provided at no charge and are funded by the School of Social Work at SDSU.

Workers in the Social Work Unit are graduate students at State completing their requirements for the Masters of Social Work degree and Pupil Personnel Services Credential.

The student social workers provide a variety of services designed to meet the social and educational needs of the students in the entire Lemon Grove District.

The unit is often called in for counseling assistance in crisis situations. The staff works with children, their families and peers, in and out of school, to help remove the child's learning obstacles and assist the family in identifying and handling specific adjustment problems.

In-service education for school staff is another phase of the social service which deals with problems varying from difficulties in communication to learning new techniques in teaching.

The unit promotes successful interaction between student and peers through projects and personal counseling.

Draws from Community

One of the goals of the San Diego State team is to further utilize community resources in upgrading the teaching process, a tie-in with the Early Childhood Education impetus at the District. A basic philosophy which corresponds to the ECE approach is that any problem a child might have in adjusting to the educational process should be recognized and resolved at its earliest stages to allow the child to learn in the most stimulating atmosphere. Group counseling for parents helps them blend the school and home atmosphere to benefit the child.

Parents aren't the only community resource involved in the program. The unit calls in local business and manufacturing firm representatives to discuss their interests in the classroom. The social orientation fosters a child's interest in the workings of his community.

Out of Class

The Social Service Unit has gone beyond the classroom to promote services to the community at large, as well. Local projects which the San Diego State group claims to have been instrumental in establishing include the Lemon Grove Youth Center, Alternatives to Suspension, the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley Nutrition Program and a drug education program.

Now in progress is a series of lectures for parents, a joint project between the Social Work Unit and Lemon Grove's Parent Education Program. Remaining talks include "Building Self-Esteem and Learning to Actively Listen to Your Child," (March 10) and "Principles of Modern Day Math" (March 24).

Both lectures begin at 7:30 p.m. at Vista La Mesa School auditorium. Topics for the lecture series were chosen on the basis of interest expressed by parents.

Parents who want to find out more about the unit's functions are advised to contact their children's school office or call Jeanette Norton, field instructor, at 463-8577. District headquarters for the program is San Miguel School.

Ground Broken for Grossmont Hospital Rehabilitation Ctr.

Ground was broken in February for the new William T. Soldmann, Jr., M.D. Community Rehabilitation Center at Grossmont Hospital.

The $3.8 million facility, anticipated to open in mid-1977, will provide comprehensive physical and mental health services to some 332,000 residents of the east county district. The center will consist of two, single-story buildings, each with a capacity of 30 inpatient beds. In addition, the facility will allow the Grossmont Hospital staff to expand its outpatient services in these two fields.

The Community Rehabilitation Center is named in honor of long-time community leader, Dr. William T. Soldmann, Jr. Dr. Soldmann was a member of the Grossmont Hospital Association which began plans for the original hospital in 1949. He became the hospital's first Chief of Staff in 1955, and now serves as president of its board of directors.

Outside TV Taken

While Dorothy S. Salyi of 9075 Birch st., Spring Valley was at work, someone took her 21" color television she had put outside for her son to take to the repair shop.

During the evening she called her son, who lives elsewhere and has no key to her house, and learned that it was not he who took the set.

The value of the set was given as $300 by Mrs. Salyo.

Maritime Academy Exams To Be Given In San Diego

The California Maritime Academy will hold an entrance examination at its campus in Vallejo on Saturday at 9 a.m.

The 2½ hour exam is offered for the convenience of applicants who have not taken the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) or the American College Testing Program examination (ACT).

The test will also be offered aboard the Academy's Training Ship Golden Bear in San Diego on March 7, 8 and 9. The ship will be berthed at the Foot of Broadway Pier.

School counselors may also proctor the examination. Interested persons not able to reach one of these locations may ask their school counselor to request that the examination be mailed to them.

Men and women high school graduates and high school seniors having an interest in the maritime industry — both afloat and ashore — are urged to sit for the examination. No pre-registration or prior application to the Academy is necessary.

The California Maritime Academy is operated by the State of California to prepare young men and women for careers as officers in the American Merchant Marine. The course of instruction is four years in length. The graduate receives a license as a deck or engineering officer and a Bachelor of Science Degree in either Nautical Industrial Technology or Marine Engineering Technology.

Commissions Awarded

Those graduates who qualify also receive commissions as ensign in the U. S. Naval Reserve (Inactive). Costs of the program are borne by the State of California, the Federal Government, and the student. A full range of financial aid is available.

Requirements for admission are: Be a citizen of the United States; be at least 17 years of age and not have reached the age of 24 at time of admission (27 for veterans); hold a high school diploma or the equivalent, and meet prescribed physical requirements.

Admission to the Academy is without regard to sex, race, color, creed or national origin. Minority group applicants are specifically encouraged to apply.

Starting salaries for most CMA grads are $1100-$1350 a month for shoreside work and $1400-$1900 per month for seagoing jobs. The school's job placement office usually has difficulty finding enough graduates to fill the job requests from the West Coast maritime industry.

Mail contact is Director of Admissions, California Maritime Academy, P.O. Box 1392, Vallejo, CA 94590.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q. I am 65 years old and have just sold my home. I've heard that because of my age, I may not have to pay tax on some of the profit I made from the sale. Is this true?

A. Yes. If you were 65 or older before the date of the sale or exchange of your house, you may be able to exclude from your income all or part of the gain from the sale. However, you are allowed to do this only once in your life, and you must have owned and used the property as your principal residence for at least five of the eight years immediately before the date of the sale.

If you meet these requirements, and if the adjusted sales price of your home is $20,000 or less, you may elect to exclude the entire gain from your income. This election must be made by both taxpayers if the property is jointly owned. If the adjusted sales price is more than $20,000, you may still be able to exclude part of the profit. For more information, see IRS Publication 523, Tax Information on Selling Your Home. It's available free from your IRS Office.

Q. I have a full-time job in one city, but I live with my family in a city 100 miles away, and I must travel back and forth each week. Are any of the travel and living expenses deductible?

A. No. In a case like yours, your home, for tax purposes, is considered to be your principal place of business, employment or post of duty, regardless of where you maintain your family residence. Your food and lodging while at your job and your travel expenses are considered personal expenses, and are not deductible. For more information, see IRS Publication 463. Travel, Entertainment, and Gift Expenses, available free at your IRS Office.

Q. I made a down payment on a home I wanted to have built, but the construction company has just declared bankruptcy. I am told I have no chance of recovering my money. Is there some kind of loss which I can declare on my tax return?

A. When a construction company becomes insolvent and fails to perform under the terms of a contract, the unrecoverable deposit made for the construction of a residence is considered a non-business bad debt.

The deposit must be treated as a short term capital loss, and is subject to the limitations on deductions for capital losses. Report the loss on Schedule D, Form 1040. For more details, see IRS Publication 548, Tax Information on Deduction for Bad Debts.

A Look at Past Issues

Back Pages

A look at the pages of this newspaper twenty years ago reveals some of the interesting contrasts between then and now. This column highlights some of the items that appeared in this newspaper at this time two decades ago.

By Bruce Binkowski

Twenty years ago this week the first leases were signed at the new College Grove Shopping Center. The original size of the complex just west of Lemon Grove contained 12 "ultra-modern" two and three-story buildings with more than 650,000 square feet of floor space and parking for 5,000 cars.

The Lemon Grove Methodist Church opened its doors for the first time with the Reverend Don Cooke, minister.

A meeting of persons interested in the incorporation of Lemon Grove was held at the Lemon Grove Jr. High auditorium. Petitions were circulated following the meeting. A total of 25 per cent of the electors within the boundaries of the proposed sixth class city and 25 per cent of the assessed valuation had to be represented to get the effort off the ground.

Checking meat prices in Review/Bulletin advertising, chuck roast sold for 29 cents a pound, pork chops 39 cents a pound, round steak for only 49 cents a pound.

In the produce department, celery sold for 2 cents a pound and grapefruit went for 19 cents for 8 pounds! American cheese sold for 49 cents a pound, Swiss cheese at 29 cents for an 8 oz. package.

And for all the peanut butter lovers, 20 years ago you could purchase a 12 oz. jar of your favorite sandwich spread for only 41 cents.

The latest in fads . . . some of the boys in Colorado wore black shoes, black denim trousers, black leather jackets and little tan beanies. In New Hampshire some of the girls were wearing head bands of metal or plastic in varied colors to match their sweaters and skirts.

IPO Employment Figures for LG-SV

8,040 men and 4,277 women in Spring Valley are employed while 649 men and 480 women are seeking work, according to a Special Census Bulletin issued last week by the San Diego County Integrated Planning Office (IPO). Another 7,535 men and 12,521 women were not in the labor force at all.

In Lemon Grove it was 4,704 men and 2,727 women at work and 438 men and 307 women unemployed. 4,590 men and 7,609 women are not in the labor force.

Not in the figures are 640 people in the military and 2441 students who live in Spring Valley.

In Lemon Grove 432 people are in the military and 1,432 are students.

The Spring Valley median income is $13,351 while Lemon Grove's is $11,785.

University has the highest median with $17,169, Lowest is Mountain Empire with $6,117.

Spring Valley shows 170 families with an income of more than $40,000. In Lemon Grove there were 34. The coastal region showed the most in that bracket: 1,612. Anza had none.

Stoecklein Heads M. Bollman's Race

RAdm. H. G. Stoecklein, USN Ret., has been named chairman of the campaign to elect Mike Bollman to the State Assembly in the 77th District.

Stoecklein is former commanding officer of the Naval Regional Medical Center (Balboa Naval Hospital) and a physician who presently serves as president of the UCSD School of Medicine Assocs.; regional director of the National Conference of Christians and Jews; vice president of the Navy League, and 1976 chairman of the Heart Fund Drive.

"Mike Bollman is an outstanding individual who will make a very fine assemblyman. I urge everyone and particularly my many personal friends to support his candidacy," Stoecklein said.

Stoecklein lives in Del Cerro. Bollman is a Republican and was his party's nominee in 1974.

NOW Sponsoring First Feminist Film Series

The San Diego Action Chapter of the National Organization for Women is sponsoring "Being Woman," an eight week feminist films series beginning Sunday with a program entitled "Growing Up Female" at the Unicorn Cinema in La Jolla.

Free child care will be available at all showings. To make arrangements call 284-2245 or 755-0749.

Stein Wins Trip

Tom Stein, operator of Dutch Cleaners at 7870 Broadway in Lemon Grove, has returned from a 5-day trip to Mexico City he won in a membership drive contest sponsored by the National Assn. of Dry Cleaners.

Stein was one of seven persons to win trips from among the 14,000 members across the nation.

He is active in the Assn. and is president of the NADC Boosters club.

Van Deerlin Eyes Bilingual Ballots, Illegal Alien Hire

Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D-San Diego, urged Attorney General Edward H. Levi to throw federal resources behind a California law making it a crime for employers to hire illegal aliens for jobs that could be taken by American workers.

Van Deerlin asked the Justice Department, which Levi heads, to issue guidelines for the Immigration and Naturalization Service and the Border Patrol to use in cooperating with state agencies charged with upholding the law.

He said the guidelines should "specify conditions under which federal officers will report violations to district attorneys and other appropriate state investigators and prosecutors."

Van Deerlin's action was prompted by a unanimous Supreme Court decision last week upholding the disputed California statute. The high court held states have the right to regulate immigration in order to protect their own labor force.

In another action Van Deerlin, a champion of the original 1965 Voting Rights Act, told the House that newly added amendments requiring bilingual ballots and voting materials in areas such as San Diego County are a costly nuisance and "should be radically rewritten or repealed."

He said he has received complaints about the application of the new law from two cities in his district, Coronado and National City, that are "at opposite ends of the scale of ethnic sensibilities."

Security Seen Tightening Calif. Youth Institutions

The California Youth Authority is modernizing and expanding its security arrangements in all institutions and parole offices in a statewide program aimed at reducing ward violence and escapes, it was announced last week.

Steps being taken include increasing the size of staff involved in security or supervision, installation of improved alarm systems, including portable units carried by staff, and widespread renovation of locks, fencing, lighting and other security aids. An intensive staff training program also is under way.

The emphasis on security is a result of the changing character of wards committed to the Youth Authority during recent years, according to Director Allen F. Breed.

Older Wards

Since 1965, the CYA ward population has been reduced by one-third, but those sent to the Department tend to be older and more oriented to crime and delinquency than in the past. In 1965, wards in institutions averaged 16.4 years in age; by 1975, the average age had increased to 19.1. The proportion committed for crimes of violence has more than doubled during this period.

Assaults by wards on staff and against other wards also have increased sharply during recent years. In the three-year period from 1970 through 1972, there were 267 attacks on staff and 410 against other wards. In 1973-74, during a single 12-month period, attacks on staff totaled 138 and there were 675 ward-on-ward assaults.

The number of ward escapes also increased during the early 1970's, to 517 by 1974, but decreasing to 402 in 1975.

The Youth Authority operates ten institutions and five conservation camps around the state, most of them designed for the younger and easier-to-handle ward population of years past.

Wilson Bill Aids Mobile Home Owners

Assemblyman Bob Wilson of La Mesa who will be state senator or out of work after the November election, has introduced legislation to give mobilehome owners the same selling rights as those who live in conventional homes.

After introducing his bill Wilson said, "This measure will guarantee mobilehome owners the right to display 'for sale' signs on their coaches. Currently, mobilehome park managers or owners can prohibit tenants from displaying the signs."

Since park owners often prohibit tenants from displaying "for sale" signs, coach owners do not have total control over the sale of their mobilehomes. In fact, many park owners require prospective buyers to come to them for information about such sales.

The park owners or managers then collect sales commissions for coaches located in their parks.

The bill will save mobilehome owners thousands of dollars in commission costs. It will also give mobilehome owners the same selling rights given conventional home owners."

Wilson is running for state senator against veteran Senator Jack Schrade, a Republican.

Late Auto Fee Penalty Climbs to 50% Mon.

If you missed the February 6 deadline for registering your vehicle you now face the possibility of a 10 per cent penalty charge added to what your registration fee should have been. And after Monday the penalty climbs to a whopping 50 per cent.

According to Registrar R. O. M. Phillips, an estimated 2 per cent of the potential vehicle registration renewals are penalized each year for delinquency.

Rent Aid Starts for Low Income Families

San Diego's program for rent relief for low income families, senior citizens over 62, the disabled or the handicapped, is under way.

Lemon Grove, Spring Valley and other unincorporated areas of the county are included in the federally funded program. Nine cities will also get aid. San Diego, National City, Carlsbad and Coronado are not included in the county program.

The program is implemented by the San Diego County Housing Authority which will get $2 million a year from the federal government for the next five years to run the program.

Applications are being accepted by the Housing Authority (236-4794) from prospective tenants. Applications may be made by phone.

Eligible tenants will pay no more than 25 per cent of their gross income as rent. This amount will be paid directly to the property owner. The difference between the tenant's payment and the rent charged will be paid by the Housing Authority directly to the property owner.

The program is designed to provide rental assistance to families and individuals whose gross income does not exceed the following amounts: one person, $6,600; family of two, $8,450; family of three, $9,500; family of four, $10,600; family of five, $11,250; family of six, $11,900; family of seven, $12,550; family of eight, $13,250.

Landlord's Responsibility

The role of the landlord in the program is to provide decent, safe, and sanitary housing to tenants at fair market rents. The program requirements which the landlord must meet are those which a landlord would customarily provide to tenants.

If a tenant vacates a unit in violation of the lease provisions, or is evicted, the owner may continue to receive 80 per cent of the fair market rent from the Authority for up to 60 days or until the unit is rented, whichever is shorter.

Owners who are interested in listing their properties located in the geographical areas under jurisdiction of the Housing Authority, or who desire further information about the program, should call 236-2307 weekdays between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Because of the limited allocation of federal money for the program, all applications will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.

E.C. Business Group Voices Crime Concern

The El Cajon Valley Business Assn. turned its attention this month to the "rampant, widespread, unchecked wave of crime in El Cajon striking most businesses and all business sections."

ECVBA President Bill Payne reported that muggings, robberies, thefts, break-ins and vandalism is the rule rather than the exception in most areas.

Payne said that the ECVBA would take steps to stop violations of property rights and abuse of power of government agencies in excessive controls and excessive taxation on the one hand and unbridled crime on the other.

In the land use concern, limitation of property right in the El Cajon General Plan was spotlighted.

The group will contact other communities where citizens have organized to fight crime; contact EC Police, California Highway Patrol and the Sheriff for suggestions on preventing crime, and obtain information from experienced crime-fighters on programs and procedures that have been effective.

The ECVBA may be contacted at 444-1188.

Free 'Fix-it' Skills Taught in El Cajon

A course designed to cover all the minor breakdowns in plumbing, appliances and electricity that householders may encounter under normal circumstances, is presented by Grossmont Community College District's Office of Community Education at 1 p.m. each Wednesday, March 10 through April 14. Classes are held at the El Cajon Nutrition Site, 269 Highland ave., El Cajon.

"Basic Household Repairs" will offer a practical and economical approach to household repairs that will teach the student to be a "do-it-yourself" expert. Instructor Jesse Peeler will emphasize a layman's approach to household repairs to provide information on how to "fix-it" properly and safely.

There is no registration or enrollment fee for the non-credit course which is open to the public.

Summer Conservation Work Open to Youth

The Youth Conservation Corps (YCC), a conservation education, work experience program operated during the summer by the U.S. Forest Service, the Department of the Interior and the California Parks and Recreation Dept., is accepting applications.

Young men and women, age 15 through 18, who are permanent residents of the United States, are eligible to apply.

Applications must be in Washington D.C. by March 19th for this summer's program. Forms are obtained from the Forest Supervisor Cleveland National Forest, 3211 Fifth ave., San Diego, phone 293-5050.

Wallet Lost in Market

The cost-of-living went up for Terry A. Hart of 2835 Glen Canyon circle, Spring Valley on February 10.

While he was shopping at a southwest Spring Valley 7-11 Store about 9:30 a.m. he dropped his wallet and it couldn't be found.

Missing with the wallet was $30 in cash, his drivers license, Mastercharge card and other valuables. It was not recalled that others were in the store at the time of the loss.

State Income Tax Median Up Slightly

The median adjusted gross income for California single taxpayers in 1974 was $4,558, while married couples filing joint returns had median adjusted incomes of $14,385, Allan Desin, Manager, Research and Statistics for the Franchise Tax Board, reported.

The median adjusted gross income on all 1974 personal income tax returns filed in 1975 was $9,598. This is an increase of only 2.5 per cent over the previous year despite a 9.8 per cent rise in total adjusted gross income, from $83.8 billion to $92.0 billion.

The modest increase in median average income and large increase in total adjusted gross income was a result of the large increase in the number of small or no tax returns filed.

Median income is the point at which half the returns have greater and half have lesser income.
